

Canada's new polymer notes

Secure • Durable • Innovative

Security features at a glance

Check to Protect: Bank notes are secure only if you check them.

Feel the smooth, unique texture of the note. It's made from a single piece of polymer with some transparent areas.

Frosted maple leaf window

Look through the transparent outline.

Metallic portrait and building

Flip the note to see these images from the front repeated in the same colours and detail on the back.

$100 starting November 2011
$50 starting March 2012
$20, $10, $5 coming by late 2013

Same security features on the $50 note

Large window

Look through the transparent area containing a detailed metallic portrait and building.
