

BANK OF CANADA
BANQUE DU CANADA

CELEBRATING CANADA'S 150TH

Can you find me?

Get to know the special $10 bill celebrating the 150th anniversary of Confederation. This unique bill celebrates Canada's history, land and culture.

Visit www.bankofcanada.ca/banknote150 and watch the short videos to learn about this note then see how many clues below you can answer!

Clues

Match these clues with the picture by putting the clue number in the right bubble. ○

1. I am Canada's first Prime Minister.
2. My Blackfoot name means "Many Guns" and I became a senator before I had the right to vote.
3. As the first woman elected to the House of Commons, I championed equality and human rights.
4. As a Father of Confederation, I worked to protect French Canada and other minorities.
5. I am an arrow sash, an important symbol of Métis culture.
6. I am an arch in Parliament Hill's Memorial Chamber, which honours Canadian soldiers who have given their lives in service to their country.
7. I am the official Canada150 logo.
8. We are a well-known Canadian symbol. Linked together, we represent Canada's 13 provinces and territories.

Clues

Match these clues with the picture by putting the clue number in the right bubble. ○

1. I am used to make bread and am one of Canada's most important crops.
2. I was created by Kenojuak Ashevak, an Inuit artist from Nunavut who helped introduce Inuit art to the world.
3. I am the Coat of Arms, an official symbol of Canada.
4. My rocky shores in Newfoundland and Labrador may have been where famous explorer John Cabot first reached North America in 1497.
5. I am Wood Buffalo, Canada's largest national park and one of the best places in the world to see the northern lights.
6. I represent Canada's forests, rivers and the Canadian Shield, ancient rock that covers about half of Canada.
7. I am located in British Columbia. I can be called either The Lions or The Twin Sisters.

Check your answers at www.bankofcanada.ca/banknote150. Use #banknote150 to tell us how you did!

Get your Canada 150 bank note at banks and credit unions starting June 2017.