

Acknowledgements

Many people contributed to the success of the conference. The presenters, discussants, panellists, and conference participants obviously deserve a large portion of the credit for this success. As well, throughout the conference organization process, I was fortunate to obtain advice from Agathe Côté, Pierre Duguay, David Longworth, and especially John Murray on a broad range of conference matters. A number of other people, however, laboured in the background, and I would like to acknowledge their contribution. The conference logistics were organized flawlessly (as usual) by Jason Parliament. Don Coletti provided excellent backup support when I was unavailable and handled many of the conference details. Jean-Claude Loyer administered the conference budget and, together with Chantal Savard, tied up a number of loose ends as we neared the conference date. Secretarial support was provided by Chantal Savard, Christine Brazeau-Gauvreau, and Sonia Bravo Montoya.

The editing of this conference volume was done by Colleen Thatcher. Anne Potvin was responsible for entering editorial changes and for putting the volume in its published form. Translation of the abstracts of the conference papers into French was coordinated by Madeleine Renaud. Ginette Boulerice, Johanne Bourgeois, and Hélène Paquette verified the references. Finally, the note-takers for each session contributed to the volume by recording and summarizing the discussions.

I am extremely grateful to everyone involved in the project for their effort and dedication.
