

Is she #bankNOTEable

A new bank note will be issued in late 2018 featuring an iconic Canadian woman, and the Bank of Canada is inviting the public to nominate individuals they feel are deserving of this recognition.

This includes hearing from Canada's youth and encouraging them to nominate women whose life and achievements have the power to inspire future generations of Canadians.

An open call for nominations is now underway, and the deadline for submissions is 15 April 2016.

We hope you'll consider participating with one of your classes as well as help us to spread the word. We've prepared a tool kit to help you get started.

The long list will be published on the Bank's website this Spring. Visit bankofcanada.ca/banknoteable for the latest information and to learn more about the selection process.
